

I am dismayed to learn that Sinclair Broadcasting has ordered its stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary in a clear effort to influence the election on George W. Bush's behalf.

It is my understanding that companies like Sinclair receive licences from the government to broadcast on the public airwaves with the understanding that they serve the public interest. The decision by Sinclair runs directly contrary to that commitment. I urge the FCC to take any measure necessary--including the denial of licence renewal--in order to defend fairness in the use of the public's airwaves. I look forward to your reply.
